Informed Consent for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine

Nature of Treatment: Your treatment may include acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, electric or magnetic stimulation, acupressure, dermal friction (Gua Sha), infra-red (heat lamps), therapeutic exercises and dietary counseling based on the fundamentals of Chinese medicine.

Purpose of Treatment: The purpose of the treatment is to resolve your complaint, i.e. the reason that you are seeking treatment. Acupuncture is a health care service that is based on an Oriental system of medical theory. Based on these theories, diagnosis and treatment are used to promote health and treat organic or functional disorders.

Benefit of Treatment: Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine procedures have been used effectively to treat disease for hundreds of years. The World Health Organization lists 40 conditions, which may effectively be treated by Chinese medical methods. These include muscular-skeletal injuries, digestive disorders, respiratory diseases, women's health issues, etc. As with any form of health care, there is no guarantee regarding the outcome of any course of treatment.

Risks of Treatment: Acupuncture and Oriental medicine have been shown to be relatively safe. However, there are some uncommon, but potential risks. These potential risks may include, but are not limited to:

- discomfort during and after the insertion of a needle
- "needle sickness" (dizziness, fainting, nausea)
- localized, minor bruising or swelling
- minor burns with the use of moxa
- temporary aggravation of symptoms that existed prior to treatment
- a broken needle (rare with the use of disposable needles-see below)
- infection (rare with the use of disposable needles-see below)

Special Situations: Some acupuncture points are contraindicated during pregnancy. Please notify your practitioner if you are or might be pregnant. Additionally, you need to inform your practitioner if you have severe bleeding disorders, or if you are wearing a pacemaker or other electronic medical device.

Use of Disposable Needles: To reduce the possibility of infection from acupuncture, all needles used at this office are pre-sterilized, one-time-use needles made of surgical stainless steel. After each treatment, they are disposed of as medical waste. Needles are never reused.

Unforeseen Risks: Of course, your practitioner is unable to anticipate or explain all risks and complications that may occur during or after a treatment. Your practitioner will exercise judgment based upon his determination of your best interests.

Requirement of Washington State Law: Washington State Law does not permit acupuncturists to treat certain disorders without the consultation of a physician, i.e. a medical doctor. These conditions are:

- a) Cardiac conditions including uncontrolled hypertension
- b) Acute abdominal symptoms
- c) Acute undiagnosed neurological changes
- d) Unexplained weight loss/gain in excess of 15% of body weight within a 3-month period.
- e) Suspected bone fracture or dislocation
- f) Suspected systemic infection
- g) Any serious undiagnosed hemorrhagic disorder
- h) Acute respiratory distress (without previous history or diagnosis)

The Consent Part

I _____, request and consent to the performance of acupuncture and other Oriental Medicine procedures. I understand that I am free to withdraw my consent, and that I may stop treatment or any procedure at any time. I understand that my signature on this form indicates that I have read and understand the preceding information regarding my treatment. I understand that if I have any questions about this information, I should ask. I hereby release Eric Spivack, LLC (DBA Soaring Crane Massage & Acupuncture) from any and all liability that may occur in connection with the above-mentioned procedures, except for failure to perform the procedures with appropriate medical care.

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

HIPAA is a federal program that requires that all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any form, whether electronically, on paper, or orally are kept properly confidential. This Act gives you, the patient, significant new rights to understand and control how your health information is used. HIPAA provides penalties for covered entities that misuse personal health information.

MY PLEDGE REGARDING YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

I respect my legal obligation to keep health information that identifies you private. As obligated by law, I have prepared this explanation of how I am required to maintain the privacy of your health information and how I may use and disclose your health information. I do not use your health information in my office or disclose it outside of my office without your written permission. In some limited situation, the law requires me to disclose your health information without either a written or verbal consent.

USE AND DISCLOSURE WITH CONSENT INFORMATION

I will ask you to sign a consent form allowing me to use and disclose your health information for purposes of treatment, payment and healthcare operations in this office. I am not allowed to refuse to treat you if you do not sign the consent form.

I am permitted to use and disclose your healthcare records for the purpose of treatment and payment.

- Treatment means providing coordination, or managing healthcare related services by one or more healthcare providers. For example, I may need to share information with other providers or specialists involved in your care.
- Payment means activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, verifying coverage, billing or collection activities and utilization review.

Unless you request otherwise, I may use or disclose health information to a family member or other personal representative to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare. In addition, I may use your confidential information to remind you of your appointments by leaving messages at home and/or work. Any other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization in writing and I are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that I have already taken actions relying on your authorization.

USE AND DISCLOSURE WITHOUT CONSENT

In some limited situations, the law requires me to use and disclose your health information without your permission. These examples may never come up at my office at all, but such disclosures are:

- When a state or federal law mandates that certain health information be reported for a specific purpose.
- For public health purposes, such as contagious disease reporting and notices to and from the FDA regarding drugs and medical devices.
- Disclosure to government authorities about victims of suspected abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- Uses and disclosures for health oversight activities, such as for the audits by Medicare, or for investigation of possible violations of healthcare laws.
- Disclosures in response to subpoenas or orders of the court.
- Disclosures for law enforcement purposes, such as to provide information about someone who is suspected to be a victim of a crime, or to provide information about a crime at our office.
- Disclosure related to worker's compensation programs.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

You have the following rights with respect to your protected health information, which you can exercise by presenting a written request to the Privacy Officer:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information, including those related to the disclosure of family members, other relatives, close personal friends, or any other person identified by you. I am, however, not required to agree to a requested restriction. If I do agree to a restriction, I must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.

- The right to ask me to communicate to you in a confidential way, such as by phoning you at work rather than at home or by mailing health information to a different address. Please provide a written request.
- The right to ask to see or to get photocopies of your health information. You may have to pay for photocopies in advance. I do charge a fee to release your records to an outside source other than a healthcare provider (examples are lawyer, healthcare research firm, etc). Please complete my written records request for billing or medical record release.
- The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information.
- The right to amend your protected health information.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from me upon request.

This notice is effective as of March 17th, 2003, and I am required to abide by the terms of Notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that I maintain. I will post and you may request a written copy of the revised Notice of Privacy Practices from this office.

You have the right to file a formal, written complaint with me at the address below, or with the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Civil Rights, in the event you feel that your privacy rights have been violated. I will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
